

Computer and digital literacy courses

Would you like to improve your basic computer skills?

There are free programs available to all Ontario Works clients in Peel.

You can learn how to:

- Use your computer, the keyboard and mouse
- Communicate online through social media, video conferencing etc.
- Send, receive, and manage your emails
- Search for information online
- Ensure you are using the internet safely

You can call or email any of the agencies listed below to register for a course.

If you need help with internet, transportation, childcare costs and accessing a computer, please speak to your caseworker to request financial supports.
